 Law as a driver
 for social change

CMI CHR. MICHELSEN INSTITUTE

We research law as an instrument of social change.

Our focus is on mobilization for human rights and access to justice for poor and marginalized groups.

We are at the forefront of research on how law and legal institutions work, and the strategic use of law as a political tool (lawfare).

As a key partner in the Centre on Law and Social Transformation, we are developing new and better methods for assessing effects of lawfare.

OUR RESEARCH AND EVALUATION EXPERTISE

- 1 Transitional justice and legal empowerment
- 2 Legal institutions, including female judgeship
- 3 Migration and refugee law
- 4 Natural resources and climate lawfare
- 5 Islamic law
- 6 Gender, sexuality and the law
- 7 Social and economic rights: health, welfare, employment and labour
